

Singh is Kinng game release

Games2Win.com (G2W), has released Singh is Kinng, an exciting online game starring the man fearless against all obstacles — Manmohan Singh! True to its tongue-in-cheek approach, G2W has created this entertaining yet topical game.

Singh is Kinng is a hilarious take on the Indian Prime Minister's action-packed political career. Users have to take on the avatar of Manmohan Singh and race towards the crown against all odds. With the opposition party chasing Singh from one end and several ferocious obstacles hampering the escape, users must jump, duck and pull all stunts to avoid the barriers and reach the throne — that finally makes him King.

Obstacles in the game are factual incidences witnessed on the Indian socio-political scene. The Indo-US nuclear deal, suicidal farmers, CPI, rising inflation — could things get any worse. Add that up with George Bush, rising oil prices, crashing stock markets and allegations of bribing MLA's. Singh is Kinng turns out to be one ironic and rib-tickling online gaming experience.
